

Community Resource Directory

Resource Guide

Generated: 10/14/2026, 1:00:05 AM

Applied Filters: Subcategory: youth-programs

Total Resources: 6

Aalhakoffichi' (A Place for Healing)

Pauls Valley, OK

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 405 331 2300

Website: https://www.chickasaw.net/Services/Children-Youth/Aalhakoffichi-\(A-Place-For-Healing\).aspx.aspx)

Address: 111 Arrowhead Dr., Pauls Valley, OK, 73075

SERVICES

- Youth Programming
- Residential Treatment

ELIGIBILITY

Must be a Chickasaw citizen or member of a federally recognized tribe, 14-19 years of age, meet eligibility criteria and have at least one adult family member willing to participate in the program services.

DESCRIPTION

Aalhakoffichi' "a place for healing," serves Chickasaw and First American youth and their families with support and recovery services stemming from mental health, substance abuse or family relational issues.

Last Verified: 8/14/2026

Canadian County Children's Justice Center

El Reno, OK

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 4052620202

Website: <https://childrensjusticecenterok.org/>

Address: 7905 E. Highway 66, El Reno, OK, 73036

SERVICES

- Counseling
- Crisis Intervention
- Peer Support
- Residential Treatment
- Outpatient Treatment
- Support Group
- Parenting Support
- Family Counseling

DESCRIPTION

Provides free mental health and substance misuse counseling and assessment services for children. Adults involved in a court case in Canadian County or DHS, can receive mental health counseling, substance misuse groups/counseling, and assessment. Free drug testing for children residing in Canadian County, or adults with a referral from judge or DHS. Free residential SUD treatment for adolescents (Canadian County resident). Probation services for children exhibiting problematic behaviors, truancy, or criminal activity. Children wanting mentoring to learn trades for future employment use. Camp Hope for children/adolescents whom have experienced trauma/violence in their home/life. Community service opportunities for adolescents.

Last Verified: 8/14/2026

Chickasaw Children Village

Kingston

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 580-564-3060

Website: <https://www.chickasaw.net/services/children-youth/chickasaw-children-s-village.aspx>

Address: 12998 Village Rd., Kingston, 73439

SERVICES

- Youth Programming

ELIGIBILITY

First American – as documented by the Bureau of Indian Affairs or a federally recognized tribe

Applicants ages 5 and up must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 before being accepted

Must be in grades one through 12

Must be eligible for enrollment in Kingston Public Schools

You Provide;

- Copy of CDIB card (front and back)
- Updated immunization record and COVID-19 vaccination card
- Birth certificate
- Copy of Social Security card (front and back)
- School transcript
- Current contact list
- Copy of insurance, Medicaid or Sooner Care card (front and back)

DESCRIPTION

The children's village provides a safe and nurturing home-like environment for First American youth.

Staff develop individual needs assessments and work to address each student's emotional, spiritual, social and physical needs.

Last Verified: 3/30/2026

Children's Recovery Center

Norman, OK

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 405-573-3842

Website: <https://oklahoma.gov/odmhsas/about/odmhsas-facilities/crc.html>

Address: 320 12th Avenue Northeast, Norman, OK, 73071

SERVICES

- Youth Programming
- Residential Treatment

DESCRIPTION

Children's Recovery Center (CRC) is a trauma-informed, inpatient psychiatric care facility proudly serving Oklahoma's adolescents. CRC holds 55 beds and offers two programs: a Crisis Stabilization program and a Psychiatric Residential Treatment (PRTF) program, sub-divided into two wings. The Crisis Stabilization Unit provides 24-hour walk-in and behavioral health crisis intervention care for estimated shorter stay needs and the PRTF program provides 24-hour psychiatric care after a scheduled intake.

Last Verified: 8/14/2026

Jack Brown Center (Cherokee Nation Health Services)

Tahlequah, OK

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 918-453-5500

Website: <https://health.cherokee.org/health-center-and-hospital-locations/inpatient-care/>

Application Link: <https://health.cherokee.org/media/viwc0mn/application-packet.pdf>

Address: PO Box 948, Tahlequah, OK, 74465

SERVICES

- Youth Programming

ELIGIBILITY

Open to all Native Youth between the ages of 13-18

DESCRIPTION

The Jack Brown Center is a 36-bed, co-educational facility located in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, funded by Indian Health Service and operated by the Cherokee Nation. Jack Brown Center provides chemical dependency education and treatment for Native American adolescents. The center serves native youth ages 13-18 who are experiencing substance abuse problems. This minimum 14-week program includes behavior modification, individual, family, and group counseling. Jack Brown Center can treat dual diagnosis as well, and uses evidence based and or best practices in the treatment of the youth.

Jack Brown Center is accredited by both the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services and Commission for Accreditation of Rehabilitation Services. There is no cost for treatment. Clients must be citizens of a federally recognized tribe.

Last Verified: 3/30/2026

Palmer's Tulsa Outpatient Treatment Program

Tulsa, OK

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 918-832-7763

Website: <https://palmer-tulsa.org/>

Application Link: <https://palmer-tulsa.org/appointment-form/>

Address: 222 West 8th Street, Tulsa, OK, 74119

SERVICES

- Outpatient Treatment
- Youth Programming
- Counseling
- Parenting Support
- Parenting Classes
- Family Counseling

ELIGIBILITY

You should plan to bring these items on your first visit: Medicaid card if applicable Valid photo ID (except children) Social Security card Insurance Card (if applicable)

DESCRIPTION

Palmer Addiction Recovery Services delivers trauma-informed substance use treatment and prevention for underserved individuals and families.

- Outpatient Services: Outpatient substance abuse treatment for children and adolescents ages 7-17 and adults ages 18 and older. Individual, group, and family counseling services are offered.
- Youth Prevention & Intervention: We provide services to 6th–12th grade students in high-need school communities across major local school districts, including: Tulsa, Broken Arrow, Jenks, and Union. Many of the youth we serve come from families experiencing economic hardship, homelessness, and unmet mental health needs. All student services are provided at no cost, ensuring access regardless of a family's financial circumstances. School referrals accepted. Referral forms can be found on the website.

Palmer operates under an open-door policy, ensuring that any child or adolescent seeking treatment is served regardless of a family's ability to pay.

Last Verified: 4/7/2026